BIOGRAPHY

Dr. James Simmons (he/him/his) is a Board Certified Acute Care Nurse Practitioner, frontline healthcare provider, and passionate multimedia medical personality.

Dr. James is one of the most sought-after medical experts in the media because of his uncanny ability to distill the complex and complicated into consumable content for any community.

As seen and heard on NBC, FOX, CBS, ABC, KTLA, Yahoo!, Scripps News, The Young Turks, KROQ, Sirius XM, Loveline, DASH Radio and countless more, his combination of extensive multimedia experience, real, relatable, and reliable approach, and more than 13 years of hospital-based critical care practice make Dr. James one of the most innovative voices changing the way we talk about healthcare today.

Dr. James was featured in Beyoncé's "Break My Soul Hive Certified" video, and is honored to be a founding and continuing Clinical Ambassador for the CDC's "Let's Stop HIV Together" campaign, advisor for ANA-California's LGBTQIA+ Task Force, Advisory Board Chair for APAIT, and Board Member of Black Queer Town Hall.
